HARVARD CO-OPERATIVE SOCIETY

1900

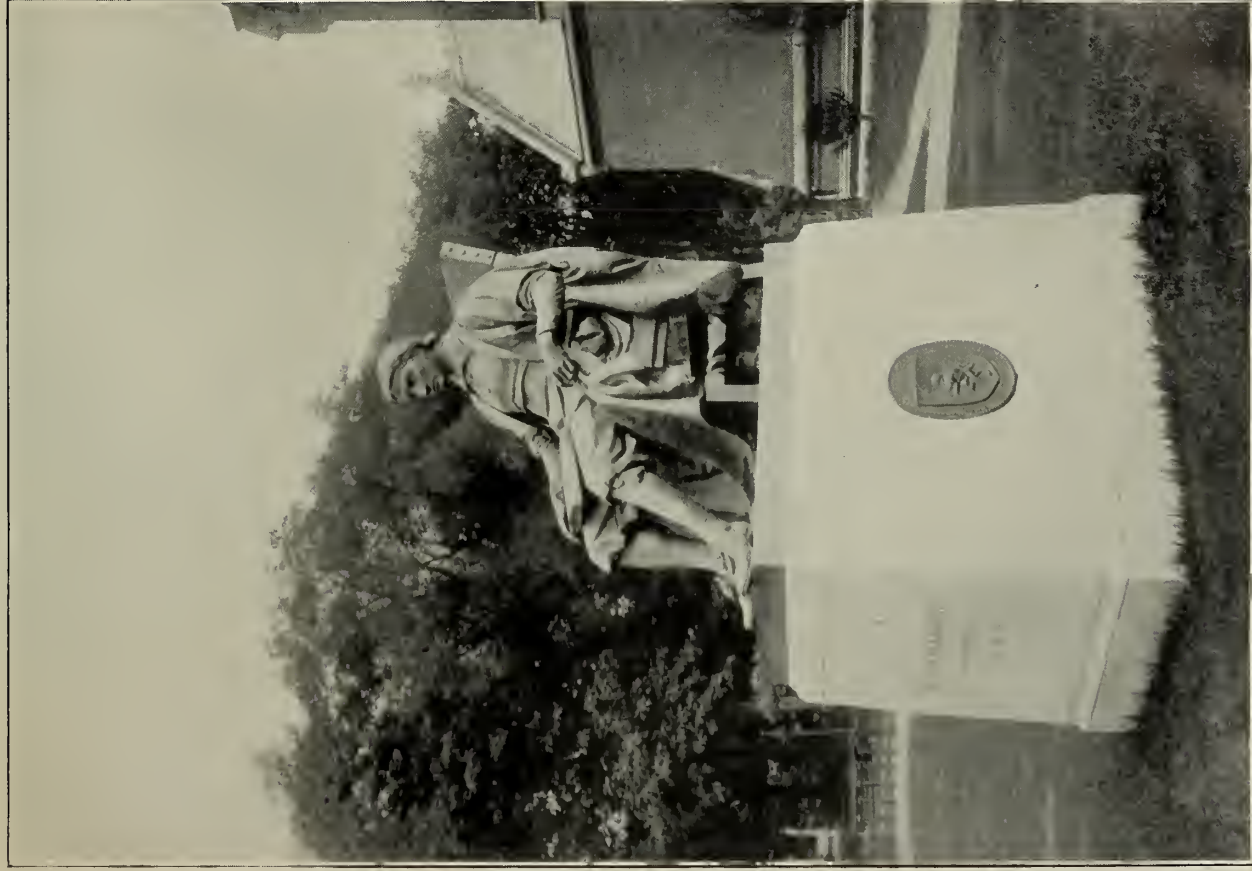

THE rapid increase and growth of the University for the past decade has rendered obsolete the souvenir books published in the past. To fill this want, the Harvard Co-operative Society has undertaken to collect the new and the old together in a form for easy reference.

The Society wishes to acknowledge the valuable assistance of Mr. Chester F. Stiles of the Photo Era in preparing the photographs for publication, and Mr. Frank R. Fraprie, '98, and Mr. Julian Burroughs, '01, who have assisted in making the newer photographs. We are indebted to Mr. Herbert W. Taylor for the loan of Radcliffe cuts, and to the Observatory and others who have contributed towards its success.
